

What are the most famous family films?

Animation films are the most successful as they have been leased over 1200 times, and the least successful musical films have been rented out about 800 times.

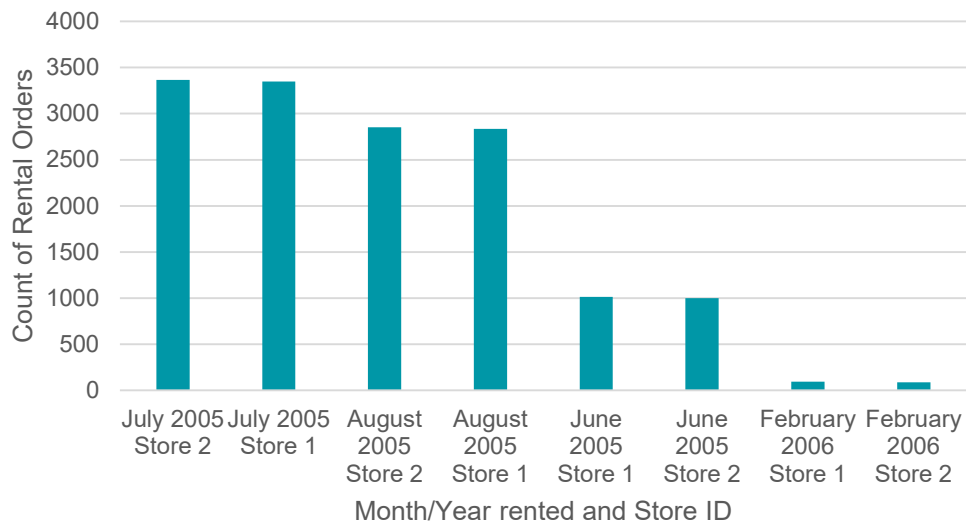

What is the distribution of family films compared to other film categories and duration of rent?

Animation films were rented 22 times during the first quarter of the year compared to 9 times for music during the same period.

How to compare stores in the number of rental requests?

Comparison of store performance

From the chart, we see that the performance of stores is very close in all months and we conclude that the number of rents increased in July 2005, while the lowest performance of the stores in February of 2006.

Who are the top 10 customers and how many orders per customer?

From the chart we note that the highest customer on the Eleanor Hunt list paid $ 211.55, while the lowest customer on the list Mike Way paid $ 162.67.